61	A Cruise Vacation Aboard Royal Caribbean International to the Mediterranean for Seven Nights in a Veranda Stateroom for Two		The Mediterranean is the perfect destination to satisfy every traveler, regardless of what you are looking for! With ports in dozens of Mediterranean cities, from Naples which offers access to the ruined city of Pompeii, to Athens, Crete, and Kusadasi (just to name a few), your Royal Caribbean cruise offers the promise of an unforgettable journey into countries with fascinating storied pasts. If you begin your cruise in Civitavecchia, the gateway to all the magnificence of the ancient city of Rome, make sure you spend a few days in Rome first. Whether it's the Forum, the Sistine Chapel, the Pantheon or St. Peter's Basilica that sparks your interest and intellect, Rome is home to a lifetime's worth of historical, architectural and spiritual sites. Turkey invites you to Kusadasi, which provides access to Ephesus, a once powerful trading and religious city created by the Ionians in the 11th century B.C. and later expanded by the Romans. In Split, one of the Adriatic's most amazing seaports and Croatia's second-largest city, explore Diocletian's Palace, one of the best-preserved Roman royal residences on the planet, which was built around 295 AD. The long sheltered beaches of Limassol, Cyprus give way to the foothills that are home to the grape vines used to make the area's famous wines, which are celebrated each September during the Cyprus Wine Festival. Sample Itinerary: Civitavecchia (Rome), Italy; Messina (Sicily), Italy; Piraeus (Athens), Greece; Kusadasi (Ephesus), Turkey; Chania (Souda), Crete, Greece; Civitavecchia (Rome), Italy.	Priceless	Travel package is non-refundable and subject to availability. Certificates/gift cards cannot be replaced. Reservations must be made at least 45 days in advance of travel. Package originates from Contiguous US.	$5,000

Explore the flavors and wonders of the city by day and night on your tours, and then seek comfort in the chic Hotel Neri for seven days & Six Nights. You'll be perfectly located in the heart of central Barcelona at the Hotel Neri, which is set right beside the city's Cathedral, and is a short distance from the bustling Las Ramblas, la Boqueria market, the Picasso museum, and so much more. If you care to make a few day trips during your stay, you can visit the beguiling city of Madrid, which is just a few hours away; explore the south of France with just a 90 minute car ride; or hit the ski slopes of the Pyrenees or Andorra, which are just a couple hours away by car. But if you just want to soak up the Spanish sun in Barcelona, the beach is just ten minutes away! Once the sun sets, stroll the Spanish streets on your tapas and wine walking tour, designed especially for foodies, and for those with an interest in local wines and culture from Barcelona, Catalonia and Spain. It's an all-inclusive tour like no other! Your English-speaking tour guide will take you to four tapas bars and restaurants where you'll savor the comida y vino deliciosos! Antoni Gaudi, visionary architect during Barcelona's modernista (art nouveau) period early last century, graced Barcelona with extraordinary architecture and beautiful buildings. In fact, no fewer than seven have been listed as World Heritage Sites by UNESCO! This Gaudi tour is an absolute must when visiting Barcelona, since it allows you to study his organic style, influenced strongly by his passion for nature. You'll also get to jump to the front of the admission line with fast-track entrance passes to Sagrada Familia and Casa Batlló.	Priceless	Travel package is non-refundable and subject to availability.
