INFORMATION FOR THE HIGH HOLY DAYS 5779

While most Synagogues send out “tickets” - we send out “invitations”
We invite you to join your congregational family in prayer and to usher in a new year. We warmly welcome you home to reunite with friends and family and begin anew.

- Please bring your invitation with you to all services
- Reciprocal invitations will be offered to members of URJ member congregations who are visiting Orlando upon prior presentation of a signed URJ Reciprocity form from their home synagogue
- children living at home under the age of 26 are included on their parents invitation
- College students & active duty military are given invitations with valid ID
- Invitations are not transferable

For more information regarding invitations, please contact Michael Kancher, 407-645-0444 or mkancher@crjorlando.org

For Your Convenience

Parking & Shuttle Bus Info

There is very limited parking at CRJ and we ask that you park in the BACK of the RaceTrac gas station in front of the Home Depot on Lee Road (609 Lee Rd, Orlando, FL 32810). Security officers are staffed there all day to assist you.

Round trip shuttle transportation will be provided to and from RaceTrac and the Temple during all services for your convenience. Shuttle service begins 90 minutes before services begin.

There will be no disability placard or parking passes issued by CRJ. Instead, the Deputies will allow those with a State of Florida Official disability placard Parking Permit to park on campus if space is available.

Please remember that there is limited street parking available around the Temple. Make note of “No Parking” signs around the neighborhood to avoid ticketing. Finally, please respect our neighbors! Try to avoid lawns and driveways when parking on neighborhood streets.

Prayer Book Information

The Reform Movement has created a brand new, beautifully written, inspiring, and contemporary High Holy Day Prayer Book, Mishkan HaNefesh (Tabernacle of the Soul). It is a two volume set, one for Rosh Hashana and one for Yom Kippur. Purchase your book(s) online at www.crjorlando.org/high-holy-days

We Care About Your Safety

As safety and security is a high priority at CRJ, please take note of the following:

- Orange County Deputies are on duty inside and outside of the building during all services.
- We prefer that women not bring purses/handbags to Temple, as all bags are subject to search.
- Our Deputies are here to help us ensure a safe and secure day. Please follow their instructions and thank them for their service to our congregation.

Enhance Your Holiday Meal

Rabbi Engel and Cantor Rawiszer have prepared a booklet of blessings and prayers that can be read at home during Erev Rosh Hashanah and Erev Yom Kippur. Copies are available both online www.crjorlando.org or by contacting the office for a hardcopy at 407-645-0444. Services will be streamed live online at www.crjorlando.org

Tashlich at the Springs (Longwood, FL)

Held on Rosh Hashanah Day | Monday, September 21, 2018 | 5:00 PM

Directions:

- Exit 94, off of I-4. East bound turn left at exit onto 434.
- West bound turn right at exit onto 434.
- Turn right at entrance to the Springs.
- At Gatehouse, show this page to the Guard for admittance.
- Turn RIGHT after you pass the Guard House – at the next right, turn RIGHT again and go to the end of the road. There will be a Clubhouse on the left, and an area for you to park.

A light hearted ceremony of prayer and music as we symbolically cast away our sins into running water.

Dress is Casual for this service. Please present this page to the Guard at the Springs Gate

Kever Avot Memorial Service

Sunday, September 16, 2018 10:00 AM

Woodlawn Memorial Park 400 Woodlawn Cemetery Road Gotha, Florida

In Jewish tradition one is to visit the cemetery between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. This is a reminder that the introspection that we are required to do cannot be accomplished without looking back upon those who have had an effect on determining who we are.

Your family and friends are invited to join us for the annual “Kever Avot” Service in the Congregation of Reform Judaism Cemetery at Woodlawn Memorial Park. Rabbi Steven Engel and Cantor Jacqueline Rawiszer will conduct the service.

“May their memories be blessings”

Special Needs - For those who are hearing impaired, there are a limited number of special hearing devices available. Please check with the Ushers upon your arrival.

High Holy Days at CRJ

Selichot - this service with its mystical overtones usually occurs the Saturday night immediately preceding Rosh Hashanah. It is intended to prepare us for the self-evaluation and reflection that we will be required to be engaged in during Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. The Hebrew word selichot means forgiveness.

Family Service - a less formal worship experience on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur where children and parents participate together. The liturgy is creative and the music will be geared toward children.

Tashlich - from the Hebrew meaning to "cast away." A ceremony of prayer and music and of symbolically casting away ones' sins into running water.

Shabbat Shuvah - the Shabbat between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. The liturgy includes special readings for the High Holy Days.

Kever Avot (Memorial Service at CRJ Cemetery) - in Jewish tradition one visits the cemetery between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. Those who came before us have had a significant impact on who we are, and therefore, we remember them at this time when Judaism requires us to be introspective.

Yom Kippur Discussion - an interactive and participatory discussion on a theme related to the High Holy Days.

Yom Kippur Meditation Service - a participatory and less formal Service where readings and prayers are read aloud by congregants. Special musical accompaniment with a harp is part of this intimate service of turning inward.

Yom Kippur Yizkor - the traditional memorial service is intended for those who have experienced a death in their family. Our CRJ Yizkor prayer book is used and congregants may memorialize loved ones through The Book of Remembrance.

Yom Kippur Healing Service - a time for personal reflection focusing on Jewish prayers, liturgy and readings related to healing and wholeness. A special prayer book is provided to allow congregants to reflect upon these themes and the teachings of the High Holy Days. Special music and blessings will provide an atmosphere for this reflective time.

Yom Kippur Neilah - taken from the Hebrew meaning to "close or lock." This is the concluding Service of Yom Kippur where the final blast of the shofar is sounded and the fast is broken.

FOOD DRIVE

Please help Jewish Family Services & Mazon

Please help ease the involuntary fast of millions by caring for "the stranger" - not only Jews but people of all faiths in our country and around the world, whose hunger does not end at sundown on Yom Kippur.

Pearlman Pantry at Jewish Family Services

Every dollar donated buys FIVE times the amount of food at JFS, compared to buying it retail. The suggest amount is what you and your family would spend on food for one day. Donate to <http://www.ifsorlando.org/>

However, if you wish to donate any healthy non-perishable food, please make sure the items are new and are not expired. Please do not donate items that contain pork or shellfish. Drop cans off in basket by the front office. Suggested items include:

Beans
Canned Fruit
Canned Protein
Canned Soup
Canned Vegetables

Instant Mashed Potatoes
Pasta and Pasta Sauce
Peanut Butter
Powdered or Shelf Milk
Rice

Tuna Fish
Macaroni & Cheese

MAZON - A Jewish Response to Hunger

Mazon gives grants to over 300 of the largest soup kitchens, food banks, advocacy groups and other organizations making a difference in the lives of hungry families here in the US (Second Harvest Food Bank) and abroad.

We are speaking in a united voice out of a tradition that is common to all of us, providing to those who are poor and hungry. Donate to www.mazon.org

HOW YOU CAN HELP:

Envelopes will be distributed during Rosh Hashanah services or you can send a contribution to CRJ, who will send it to the appropriate organizations.
